Season 45 Premieres October 5 With All-New Episodes Featuring Gary Clark Jr., Vampire Weekend, H.E.R., Steve Earle & The Dukes, Maggie Rogers, Kane Brown, Patty Griffin, The Revivalists, Colter Wall & more

Austin, TX—August 27, 2019—The iconic television music series Austin City Limits (ACL) announces the first half of the Season 45 broadcast line-up with seven all-new installments to begin airing October 5 as part of the program's fourteen-episode season. The stellar slate of broadcast episodes features highly-anticipated debuts from today's most talked-about live acts, and the return of ACL legends, continuing Austin City Limits' extraordinary run as the longest-running music television show in history. Providing viewers a front-row seat to the best in live performance for a remarkable 45 years, the series airs weekly on PBS stations nationwide (check local listings) and full episodes are made available online for a limited time at pbs.org/austincitylimits immediately following the initial broadcast. The show's official hashtag is #acltv.

Austin City Limits returns this fall with a season premiere featuring a blistering hour with Austin's own Gary Clark Jr., marking the acclaimed musician's third appearance on the series. Indie-rock titans Vampire Weekend make a highly-anticipated appearance in a must-see hour showcasing their first album in five years. A season highlight features the return of Americana icon Steve Earle, making his fifth appearance with a tribute to the legendary songwriter Guy Clark; Earle is joined by his band The Dukes and special guests including Rodney Crowell and Joe Ely for choice Clark classics alongside Earle's own gems from his songwriting catalog. One of Americana's finest singer-songwriters, Patty Griffin returns for her sixth appearance, sharing an episode with New Orleans rock band The Revivalists in their ACL debut. Next-generation country is showcased with two new artists representing the genre's expansive range sharing an episode: chart-topping Kane Brown and breakout Canadian folk & western singer Colter Wall. Austin City Limits continues its mission of spotlighting innovators with stunning new hours featuring R&B sensation H.E.R., a two-time 2019 Grammy® Award-winning singer-songwriter-guitarist, and singer-songwriter phenom Maggie Rogers, both making their ACL debuts.

"Over the decades ACL has built its reputation on introducing the most original, innovative and eclectic music from every genre," said ACL executive producer Terry Lickona. "Music fans love to discover artists and sounds they've never heard before, or re-discover artists and songs that have stood the test of time. There's no better place to find them than Austin City Limits, and this season is a perfect example!"

For the series milestone Season 45, the broadcast has a new opening featuring Austin indie stars Spoon's classic "Hot Thoughts" and showcasing many of Austin's own homegrown talents captured at the live music capital's many colorful locations.

About Austin City Limits

Austin City Limits (ACL) offers viewers unparalleled access to featured acts in an intimate setting that provides a platform for artists to deliver inspired, memorable, full-length performances. The program is taped live before a concert audience from The Moody Theater in downtown Austin. Austin City Limits is the longest-running music series in television history and remains the only TV series to ever be awarded the National Medal of Arts. Since its inception, the groundbreaking music series has become an institution that's helped secure Austin's reputation as the Live Music Capital of the World. The historic KLRU Studio 6A, home to 36 years of ACL concerts, has been designated an official Rock & Roll Hall of Fame Landmark. In 2011, ACL moved to the new venue ACL Live at The Moody Theater in downtown Austin. ACL received a rare institutional Peabody Award for excellence and outstanding achievement in 2012.

Austin City Limits is produced by KLRU-TV and funding is provided in part by Dell Technologies, American Airlines, the Austin Convention Center Department and Cirrus Logic. Additional funding is provided by the Friends of Austin City Limits. Learn more about Austin City Limits, programming and history at acltv.com.
